

April 2020 Sask. United Church of Canada Women Newsletter

But the fruit of spirit is....kindness. Galatians 5: 22

Let us be kind to one another...kind to our spouses, kind to our children and grandchildren, kind to our caregivers, kind to the providers of our essential services, kind to our government leaders and workers, kind to all those around us.

We were hoping to have a fun-filled week-end with women from throughout the Living Skies Region on April 24 – 26. However, it can't happen now so we hope you are finding ways to renew your spirit in this time of solitude and isolation. It is o.k. not to have to frantically plan rummage sales, Mother's Day events, teas, bazaars, or whatever fund-raising functions you are usually involved in. It's o.k. to relax and enjoy the sunrises and sunsets and watch the snow melt away into springtime. It's o.k. to go for leisurely walks alone or social distancing with a friend. It's o.k. to just be!

Here is an Easter message from our nation UCW President, Beulah Hayley:

Dear Sisters in Christ,

Thinking of you all as we get ready to celebrate Easter, most without family or grandchildren. It is a frightening time for sure. But, there is hope for us if we remember to trust in God. We are not alone, Be still, and know He is with us always.

Know that we can rest in His presence. We don't have to say anything, He knows our every fear, every frustration, and our every longing. He will give us strength to get through this and we will soon see the light at the end, and we will celebrate !!

Wishing you and your love ones , Easter Blessings of love, hope and peace.

Beulah

A note from the Admin Staff:

Treasurer, Wilma Will wanted to share a Facebook post about trusting God that is very appropriate for our current situation and Mary had a Goodnight Story titled The Time We Spring-Cleaned the World from the internet that is especially for children who may be finding it hard to understand what is going on at this moment. All Sask. UCC Women's Newsletters are posted under the Women's Network.

Take care of yourselves. Stay safe. Above all, remember to be kind.

Blessings,

Mary on behalf of the Sask. United Church of Canada Women
