

Dwaine Mervin Dornan

December 2, 1937 - November 17, 2024

It is with heavy hearts that we announce the passing of Dwaine Mervin Dornan on Sunday, November 17, 2024, surrounded by his loving wife and children. Dwaine received exceptional care and compassionate healthcare workers at the Pasqua Hospital, with special thanks to the staff on the palliative care unit, who ensured that he passed with dignity.

Upon learning of his diagnosis, Dwaine faced it with remarkable grace, reflecting on the transient nature of all forms of matter. He was part of the past and his children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren are the future, who will carry forward his legacy.

Dwaine is survived by his devoted wife, Barb Dornan; children, Jan (Barry) Stewart, David (Kim Anderson) Dornan, and Joyce (Devin) Warren; cherished grandchildren, Deidre (Darrin) Stephanson, Teri (Devin) Matthews, Rajan Anderson, Denia Anderson, Heidi (Trevor) Kerr, and Derris (Emma) Warren; great-grandchildren, Kale, Mikaela and Quinn Stephanson, Hunter, Hailey and Hannah Stewart, Karston and Nevaeh Matthews, and Brynn Kerr; and sister, Gloria Brock; as well as numerous nieces, nephews, cousins and a wide circle of close friends. He was predeceased by his parents, Stan and Hazel Dornan; brother, Rod Dornan; and his beloved grandson, Ken Stewart. Dwaine will be deeply missed by all who knew him.

Celebration of Dwaine's Life will be held at St. James United Church, 4506 Sherwood Drive, Regina, SK, on Saturday, November 30, 2024, at 1:30p.m. The family is planning to create a memory book, if you would like to contribute, feel free to bring a written memory or tribute to the service or email to dornd@sasktel.net

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Regina Anti-Poverty Ministry or to the Red Cross.

A live stream link of the service will be available closer to the date of the service.

Arrangements entrusted to Speers Funeral Chapel.
