

AND WHAT WHEN I GROW OLD

Words by Walter Farquharson
Copyright © 1983

Music by Richard D. Hall
Copyright © 1983

Flute (3rd & 4th verses)

2nd Voice
(4th verse)

Piano
and Lead
Voice

mf

C G F

4. We claim this world, its gift of life, and love to prize and

mf

1. Life flies from us, the years go by, and we're no long - er
2. We are the ones who built this place with blend - ed pain and
3. Please treat us kind - ly, give us space, and let us, too, be
4. We claim this world, its gift of life, and love to prize and

mf

Fl.

C F C/E D7

share. The great - est gift that we know is life, and pow'r to young, but roads are for ex - plor - ing, and songs can yet be joy. Ex - per - i - ence has taught us, our wits we still em - free. We claim, as right, ad - ven - ture, life as it's meant to share. The great - est gift that we know is life, and pow'r to

Fl.

Gsus4 A7 Dm7 G7

care. The great - est good that we can do is build com - mu - ni - sung. We fear the things that crip - ple us in bod - y or in ploy. We ask to be re - mem - bered now, we claim re - spect that's be. The cry of young and old is one, we seek the ver - y care. The great - est good that we can do is build com - mu - ni -

Fl.

C D G Em7

ty. Our world needs both its young and old to mind, but life still of - fers chal - leng - es and due, for all we've dreamed and la - boured for is same - to be pos - ses - sors of some worth and

 ty. Our world needs both its young and old to

Fl. rit.

Am7 D7 F/G G7 ff a tempo C Gm7 p

find in - te - gri - ty. AND WHAT, WHEN I GROW OLD, MY SON WHAT

rit. ff a tempo p

joys for us to find. rit. ff a tempo p

of - fered gift to you. AND WHAT, WHEN I GROW OLD, MY SON, WHAT al - ways have a name. AND WHAT, WHEN I GROW OLD, MY SON, WHAT find in - te - gri - ty. rit. ff a tempo p

Fl. ff mp

Fm G C Gm7

WILL YOU SAY TO ME? AND YOU, THE DAUGH-TER OF MY LOVE, WHAT

ff mp

WILL YOU SAY TO ME? AND YOU, THE DAUGH-TER OF MY LOVE, WHAT

ff mp

Fl. rit.

Ab G/B C

rit. DO YOU THINK I'LL BE?

rit. DO YOU THINK I'LL BE?