Church office workers, please feel free to use these announcements in your church bulletins or newsletters.

In this NEWS edition of the Rambler, new and time-sensitive items are listed near the top of each section. Items included for the first time will have NEW: beside the title of the event. Dates are highlighted in green for easy identification.

1. Living Skies Regional Council News:

NEW: Pastoral Relations Ponderings - Pastoral Relations Pondering Vol 66. Updates from the Pastoral Relations desk.

NEW: Reminder: Ministry Personnel Prayer Gathering – a time to connect

All ministry personnel – active, retired, honorary associates, and candidates in appointment, are warmly invite to a once a month, one hour online gathering on the 4th Tuesday of each month (January 27). For details of what to bring and link information, please see the calendar announcement. This is a simple space to pause, breathe, and remember we are not alone in ministry. Come for prayer, community and the gift of communion shared across our regions.

NEW: Assessment invoice available

It is now possible to view the invoice from the United Church of Canada regarding the assessment levied for your community of faith for 2026. You can find this information through your ChurchHub account. For more information, including an updated mailing address if paying by cheque, please follow this link. A reminder that if payment is made annually, it is due February 1.

NEW: Sacraments elder training

The Committee on Lay Leadership Support offers an online opportunity for Sacraments Elder training each spring. We are currently assessing interest to determine whether to offer again this year. If you are interested in taking the training to be newly licensed, or would like a refresher as a current Sacraments Elder, please contact Tracy Murton at tmurton@united-church.ca.

Planning for health emergencies in your community of faith

Faith communities have been asked by the Government of Canada to help respond actively and proactively particularly around the resurgence in measles outbreaks that the country is currently witnessing. While we assume that vaccine hesitancy is typically not an issue for many within the United Church, we are asking for this information to be shared so that our communities of faith can be prepared and so that we continue to be good neighbours in our local communities.

Annual report writing is fun!

It's that time of the year again – a moment to reflect on 2025 and all the amazing ministry that has happened in your community of faith. As you prepare to write the annual report, please take a look at these guidelines from the Committee on Community of Faith Support. They would also like to highlight the Manual requirement to have your financial statements reviewed, a step that many folks miss. If you have any questions, please contact Tracy Murton at tmurton@united-church.ca.

2026 Annual Declaration – Now Open

The portal for completing the 2026 Annual Declaration is now open on ChurchHub.

All ministry personnel (active, voluntary associates, and retired), including candidates, are required to complete the annual declaration before April 30 in order to remain in compliance with United Church standards for ministry personnel and to maintain eligibility for calls, appointments, and licenses for sacraments and marriages.

- Declare whether you have had any criminal charges in the past year
- Attest that you have reviewed the Creating Safe and Respectful Environments Policy and Procedures
- Attest that you have reviewed the Ethical Standards and Standards of Practice for Ministry Personnel

Follow this link for a guide to assist you in this task or contact Laura Foughse, Vocational Minister, for assistance.

Are You Missing Vocational Minister, Laura Foughse's Emails?

I promise, I'm not ghosting you! Every so often I send out an email to all ministry personnel in your region — little check ins, updates, reminders and invitations. I understand there may be some who are not receiving them. If this is you: (1) check your junk mail and (2) your ChurchHub email address needs to be up-to-date for the magic to work.

If you haven't received a message from me in a while (or ever!), just send me a quick email at lfoughse@united-church.ca and I'll make sure you're added. I'd love for you to be included — no one should be left standing outside the metaphorical church gathering space wondering where everyone went!

Preparing a records transfer for the archives?

We're nearly ready for you! Please reach out to the archivists, Erin Acland and Leanne Templeton, to discuss your plans for transferring records. All transfers require an appointment! The best way to reach us is via email at Livingskiesarchives@united-church.ca

It's been a long time waiting for the Living Skies Regional Council Archives to reestablish itself. We have a new home in the basement of Grace-Westminster United Church, Saskatoon, and a Young Canada Works Intern currently on site. While we wait for the Provincial Archives of Saskatchewan to fix their elevators and send us Living Skies boxes, we want to connect with community members that have been patiently holding onto records.

- Please do not drop off records without an appointment.
- Contact the archives to receive forms and guides.
- Schedule a transfer date.
- Ask us any questions about your record-keeping system.

An Invitation to Wonder - Online Discernment Weekend February 20–22, 2026

Is something stirring in you? A wondering about ministry — what it is, how it looks, and whether it might be calling your name? Join us for An Invitation to Wonder, a gentle online retreat for people exploring a call to ministry in The United Church of Canada.

While our original hope was to gather in person, we will now be offering this retreat online via Zoom, allowing participation from near and far. Instead of full days on screen, the weekend will unfold in intentional blocks of time, with room for group exploration and personal discernment woven throughout. This is not a commitment. This is not a decision-point. This is simply space to listen - to your heart, your questions, and the Spirit moving within you.

All are welcome — youth, young adults, mid-lifers, elders, lifelong United Church folks, newcomers, seekers, and those simply curious. If something is nudging in you... come and wonder with us.

Short reminders of our history for the Centennial year continue

As we leave the Centennial year, here is another of Gayle's Simonson's very short stories about United Church history. Many thanks to Gayle, who offers us these 100-word history vignettes for use in your own community! Please remember to credit! For our forty-first and forty-second vignettes, she writes:

NEW: Extension work has always been important to the theological colleges and the church has tried to keep up with technology. Libraries were always accessible by mail to rural ministers, but radio introduced information to a much broader audience. When the University of Alberta established a radio station (now known as CKUA) in 1927, faculty of St. Stephen's College began presenting lectures twice a month. In 1945, Principal E. Thompson received a grant from the UCC Radio Board Committee and began broadcasting weekly. Nationally Berkeley Studio produced videos for TV and as films. Today, in addition to websites, Regional Councils and many congregations have their own YouTube channels to ensure that church information is readily available for those interested.

NEW: Sometimes we should remember the contributions of early churches in Canada. Salem Chapel British Methodist Episcopalian Church in St. Catherine's is the oldest black church in Ontario. Canada's Slavery Abolition Act had been passed in 1834 and this site became an important terminus on the Underground Railway. Famed abolitionist Harriet Tubman lived nearby from 1851-1858 and helped many slaves cross the border from the U.S.A. Today it is a place of pilgrimage for many. School tours can be arranged and in summer, groups can book a tour. It was designated a Canadian national historic site in 2000. It was also the first international listing by the U.S. National Parks Service in its Underground Railroad to Freedom program.
